

CALL FOR PAPERS

We are interested in project and policy-oriented, methodologically and conceptually sound papers with an empirical focus related to the following four working groups:

1. Creating Markets...Unleashing Entrepreneurs in Five Emerging Employment Sectors for Youth

- Renewable Energy
- Water and Sanitation
- On-Farm and Off-Farm Enterprises
- Information and Communication Technologies
- HIV/AIDS

2. Building an Entrepreneurial Culture

- Promoting Micro enterprises
- Business Development Services
- Mentoring
- Micro Finance
- Entrepreneurship curriculum
- Service Learning
- The Gender Dimension of Entrepreneurship
- Eco-entrepreneurship and Entrepreneurship

3. Building Trade Capacity and Attracting Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)

- Fair Trade
- Trade and Agriculture
- Leather Goods Exports from developing Countries
- Labor Export Strategies in International Trade
- FDI and Renewable Energy
- FDI and Information and Communications Technologies
- FDI in producing consumer goods and garments etc.
- FDI Through Tourism and Diaspora

4. Developing Large Scale Labor Intensive Employment Programs

- Optimizing Youth Employment in Infrastructure Investments
- Youth Employment in Crisis
- Skills and Vocational Training

Instructions for Authors:

Papers must be written in English. Each paper must include a short abstract and a list of keywords indicating subject classification. Kindly note that submission and subsequent acceptance of a paper does not require (nor is an invitation for), the authors to present their paper at the Summit. However, all accepted papers will be made freely available to participants at the Summit on CDs and/or in print, and they will be published online on www.yesweb.org. A few selected papers will be printed as part of documentation released by the YES Campaign for the Kenya Summit.

An abstract of 400-500 words outlining the content and conclusions of the paper should be e-mailed to Poonam Ahluwalia, Executive Director, YES Campaign: PAhluwalia@edc.org

Deadlines:

Abstract submission: July 11th 2006

Abstract acceptance: July 18th 2006

Full paper submission: August 10th 2006

Full paper acceptance: August 20th 2006