courtesy call by the executive director of the Youth Employment Summit (YES), Mrs Poonam Ahluwalia. Present was NMG's corporate affairs manager, Ms Fatuma Hirsi. The visit was in preparation for the forthcoming global YES conference scheduled for September 13-16 at Kenyatta International Conference Centre (KICC), Nairobi. Mrs Ahluwalia said the summit, which will bring together 2,000 delegates from 120 countries, will explore ways and means to spur entrepreneurial skills for the youth and link them to markets for their products. The conference will also discuss the HIV/Aids scourge, rural urban migration and
