

Preparations for YES Forum in full swing

Hyderabad (India), Nov 13: Preparations for the Hyderabad YES Regional Forum 2003 are on full throttle with less than a month left for the event. The Forum, which will bring representatives from all stakeholders from 22 Asian countries, will discuss strategies to combat the growing unemployment in the region.

“We are looking forward to the YES Regional forum and are all set to be the host the international event,” informs Mr. G Kamal V Rao, IAS, Director, Youth Services, government of Andhra Pradesh. He added, “The government, under the dynamic leadership of Hon. CM Nara Chandrababu Naidu, has constituted 13 sub committees for the smooth conduct of the event.”

Dr. Puneetha S Palakurthi, Global Alliance Coordinator, YES Campaign expressed her eagerness for the Hyderabad YES Regional Forum, “The forum will be a platform for meaningful dialogue - with the youth at the centre of all discussions. YES is all set for the Forum!”

To be inaugurated at the Shilpakala Vedika, the five-day Hyderabad YES Regional Forum 2003 is jointly organised by the government of Andhra Pradesh and the YES Campaign Secretariat, Boston. The Forum beginning December 14 will be a conclave of experts and observers from diversified fields analysing the problem of youth unemployment.

Media Contact

Anshuman Atroley

Tel: 040-5525 7692, 3090 0662

anshuman@yesweb.org